

Livin' A Dream

Music & Lyrics by Mark Yamanaka

I've been blessed to say the least, in this life of mine
I got three healthy children, and a hard-working wife
I got a roof over my head, with a bed to sleep just right
I don't need a-nothing fancy, I'd say I've been doing just fine

I'm livin' a dream, I'm livin' the life
I couldn't complain, if I went to heaven tonight
I'm livin' a dream, I'm livin' the life
If I die tomorrow, I think I would be satisfied

I've flown across this globe, and seen them big city lights
I much rather have the country though, underneath the Hilo skies I got me and my 'ukulele, with a guitar by my side
And a short glass of whiskey, and everything is feeling alright

I'm livin' a dream, I'm livin' the life
I couldn't complain, if I went to heaven tonight
I'm livin' a dream, I'm livin' the life
If I die tomorrow, I think I would be satisfied
