Parachute--lyrics

When we were young we used to play
Walking down the street strumming 'ukulele
Thinking about songs about whatever's in our head
Never a care in the whole world
Everywhere we went we knew we were lucky
To be running free living life in paradise
Then you went your way and I went mine
As we both grew older with time (oooo)
Feel like we make all the wrong mistakes
Always showing up too late no matter how we try oh
You fell out of time again
I'll see you I don't know when
But I will always be your friend
On that you can count
I'll be your parachute
Be there when the wind no longer carries you
You can take your time 'cause I'm your parachute
When you're ready to be home I'll be there with you oooooo
Ain't it funny how time flies
One day you're a child, the next day you're a mother
Just can't help but to wonder where did all the time go
Always gave it your best try
To grab it in your hands and never miss a moment
You got going so fast never had time to take it slow
And now you're caught up in all their games

Nothing around you feels the same ooooo
Feel like you got none to call on
Don't even have shoes on your feet
Or a nickel to your name, oh
You fell out of time again
I'll see you I don't know when
But I will always be your friend
On that you can count
I'll be your parachute
Be there when the wind no longer carries you
You can take your time 'cause I'm your parachute
When you're ready to be home I'll be there with you
Although we're living different lives
I'll be by your side when you need me most
And I will make the time
Fooled yourself so many times
Caught you again tellin' lies
Why are you always surprised
When things don't work out, oh
You fell out of time again
I'll see you I don't know when
But I will always be your friend
On that you can count
I'll be your parachute
Be there when the wind no longer carries you
You can take your time 'cause I'm your parachute
When you're ready to be home I'll be there with you oo oo oo

You know that I will yeah

You know that I will

You know that I will

Oh yes you know that I will
