HAWAII EDUCATIONAL TELEVISION NETWORK

PROGRAM SCHEDULE / APRIL, 1968

H. E. T. V. IS TWO YEARS OLD

April 15, 1966, Channel eleven, the first station of the Hawaii Educational Television Network, began broadcasting. Now, there are eight channels serving the people of the 50th State. Plans call for completion of the network with service to the Hilo area of the Big Island in June, and the addition of translator channels to expand the coverage on Hawaii, later this summer.

N.E.T.'s Easter special LAUDES EVANGELII will be presented Sunday, April 14, 6:30 p.m. This scene shows the mocking of Christ (played by Angelo Pietri of the European Ballet).

Zia Mohyeddin is Dr. Aziz

Virginia McKenna is Miss Adela Quest

Indian author Santha Rama Rau dramatizes E. M. Foster's famous novel.

Although E. M. Forster's celebrated book depicts an India which no longer exists, his story of a misunderstood friendship which precipitates a crisis between the British and Indian communities is a fascinating record of racial strife of a by-gone period and pertinent human conflict. The Santha Rama Rau dramatization was filmed on location in India. N.E.T. PLAYHOUSE, Friday, April 19, and Sunday, April 21, 8:00 p.m.

Dame Sybil Thorndike stars as Mrs. Moc in the television adaptation of E. M. Forster famous novel, "A Passage To India."
